

This New Hotel In Boracay Is About To Shake Things Up

RELEASE FOR: PRESS

BORACAY, PHILIPPINES— If you're about to book your next Boracay escapade, then make sure to check out this fresh find that is shaking things up in one of the best islands in the Philippines.

Nestled in Boracay's far less crowded Bulabog side, Aqua Boracay takes pride in its high-end rooms and suites, and function rooms. Operational since mid April, 2019, the luxury resort delights in its recently concluded pool party series: Soak, Popsicle, and Detox.

Another hotel highlight is The Day Club, featuring renowned Chef Chele Gonzalez's sexy pool club menu with savory staples like Coconut Tempura, Lobster Nachos, and Grilled Shrimp Tacos. The Day Club is open from 11 AM to 8 PM daily.

But if you're in it for the view— then their Ibiza Suite is for you. A private suite with a giant pool perfect for some sunset drinks or for a weekend party of your own.

Dynamic companies who are looking into adding luxury into their corporate experience can also check out Aqua Boracay's event and function packages. Spanning from mid to large scale gatherings, the resort guarantees an unmatched experience of quality leisure and pleasure.
