'Thousand Ways of LOVE'

Japan's Brand New Wedding Campaign - Offered by The Thousand Kyoto

Kyoto, Japan (March 3, 2019) - The Thousand Kyoto, the city's new deluxe hotel, announced 'Thousand Ways of Love', its novel and unique wedding campaign that caters to LGBTQ+ couples from around the world.

The Complete Wedding Package includes two-nights' accommodation with breakfast, wedding attire for two, a civil wedding ceremony at the hotels garden chapel (an option to have a traditional Buddhist wedding ceremony at a historical temple is also available), celebration dinner on the night of the ceremony, and personalized concierge service during the stay.

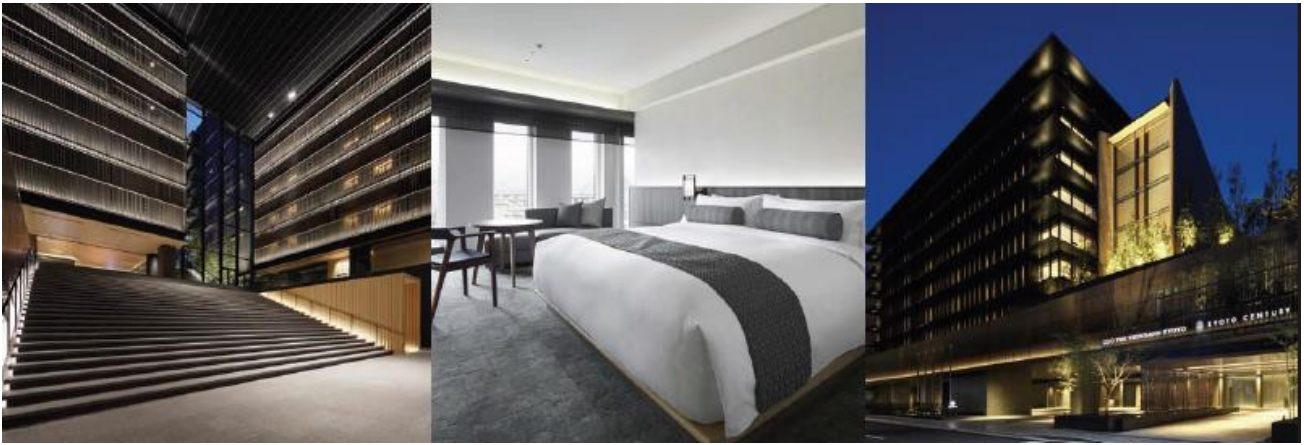

"Although 'same sex marriage' is not yet legally recognized in Japan and the number of wedding venues that accept same sex couples are still limited, we hope that our unique package will encourage couples who wish to experience an authentic and memorable wedding with their loved ones, regardless of gender or sexualities. Each love is different, and there are a thousand ways of expressing love. We value every couple's love story, and support them in making their dream come true. 'Love begets Love' is our spirit in this campaign." says Shiho Ikeuchi, Advisory Director of Sales and Marketing, Keihan Hotels and Resorts Co., Ltd. (Management company of The Thousand Kyoto)

More detailed information is available at the Pink Pavilion (LGBT segment booth) in ITB Asia, Booth F40.
